THE ANNUAL REPORT of the Postmaster General will recommend the abolition of the franking privilege and of the letter-box delivery. He will ask for the delivery of all matter through carriers or general delivery at the offices; also, for a reduction of rates on registered letters. The deficiency of the year will be small, showing a desirable improvement in the finances of the Department. The total value of stamps sold during the year was $15,078,000.

THE REPORT of the Commissoner of Indian Affairs will take strong ground against the practice of making treaties with the red men. But three, of the ten members of the Peace Commission, have visited the territories, and the Commissioner has to regret the omission. Only one fifth of the appropriation for their expenses has been drawn from the Treasury. The year has witnessed a marked improvement in the condition of affairs on the plains, under the operations of the humane policy which has been adopted. The Report also discloses another fact which is faithfully in keeping with all the other current evidences that this is an Administration honestly committed to retrencament and reform. A considerable part of the two millions appropriated to feed those Indians with whom no treaties were made, still remains in the Treasury. Nothing of that sort has been heretofore known in the experience of the Bureau.

WEST VIRGINIA has chosen another Republican Legislature, but with majorities somewhat reduced from last year, when we had 19 of the 22 Senators, and 41 of the 56 Representatives. Among the Representatives now chosen is ex-Governor Pierpoint, from Marion. Mr. J. S. Carlile has probably been beaten in Harrison. Our majority in the new Legislature will contain a liberal sprinkling of Republicans who favor the removal of existing restrictions upon disfranchised rebels, but probably not enough to ensure the absolute control of legislation. Nor would this, perhaps, be desirable. The party should be a unit on that question, and the friends of political progress will not wisely force the desired advance upon a respectably numerous minority. Discussion will do good. The principles which, since the inauguration of the movement in Ohio county a few weeks since, have commended themselves so powerfully to the popular judgment in this brief period as to win an effective endorsement in the election of so large an element of the new Legislature, are not likely to lose ground if judiciously supported hereafter. When they shall secure a nearly unanimous support from the Republican members, it will be safe for the public to rely upon the permanence of the more liberal opinions as a fixed element in the Republican policy of the State. The forcing powers would not promise so well, especially in view of the very uncertain status of more than one West Virginia politician whose name has been frequently mentioned of late. These persons may, or may not, be potent for mischief, tho' it is not easy to imagine any positive benefit to be conferred by them at present upon the Republican party. We would not think it wise to arm them, needlessly, with apologies for fresh political treacheries. A policy of wise and timely concessions, of Republicans to each other, and of the whole organization to the clearly manifest interest, both material and political, of the State, will disarm hereafter a menacing opposition, unmask false friends, and confirm a healthy and always defensible Republican preponderance in its public councils. It is in this light the situation there appears to the external judgment. The old maxim that "union is strength" has a peculiarly forcible application just now to West Virginian politics, as viewed from abroad.

A SPEECH FROM GEN. SIGEL.

The New York Times gives a sketch of the speech of Gen. SIGEL at the City Ratification Meeting of the German Republicans, on the 29th, as follows:

Gen. Franz Sigel was then introduced to the meeting amid great cheering. He said that the principles of right and justice were on the side of the meeting assembled. The American people was the nation of nations. All citizens, of whatever nationality, were equally entitled to rule this country as a consequence of the political and social liberty of this country. The American people were going back now to the principles of the Declaration of Independence after the slave power had been extinguished by the war. By and from the election of Abraham Lincoln the principle was practically settled that the majority was to rule this country. The war had become necessary, in order that, after settling the questions that caused it, the people of the United States might enjoy peace. The war had created the Thirteenth Amendment, Civil Rights Bill, Fourteenth Amendment, and now the Fifteenth Amendment was pending, preventing States from taking away the suffrage from any class of citizens. By this amendment full political equality would be created. The Syracuse platform declared that no distinction should be made any more on account of bodily appearance. The educational Department of the Freedmen's Bureau as existing in the South was necessary there for the public welfare, because it was the first duty of the State to take care of public education. Omtting to speak on the financial and other important questions, he would say that he was in favor of adopting the new Constitution, because the property clause would be removed by it and political equality would be recognized in that State. He approved the judicial clause and the clause with regard to militia officers in the new Constitution. Before the war the Germans had created only material power in this country; since the war they had also improved [illegible] and socially, and now they wanted improved politics and laws which they were to help to make the American people were to obey. The American [illegible] citizens by doing justice to the adopted [illegible] because granting them political equality, were all citizens, native born and adopted, sailing in the same ship for the common public welfare. The principles pronounced in 1776 had become practical only since the year 1861, and those who had helped in this work were being recognized by it now. This was the reason for his accepting the nomination. The result of the campaign, if successful, would benefit the country and its adopted citizens. The General retired amid the cheers of the meeting.

Spanish Finances—Still Casting about for a King—London "Times" on the Irish Land Question—The French Emperor said to be again Ailing—The Dalmatia Insurrection—Italy and the Ecumenical Council—Marine News, Markets, &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, October 30.—The paper found in a bottle off the coast of Cornwall reporting the loss of the German emigrant ship Weser, proves, on examination, to be a hoax.

The Times, in an article on the Irish land question, says: It is not our business to satisfy the Fenians; they would not be satisfied if Ireland was confiscated for their benefit. It is our business to do justice between two classes constituting the bone and sinew of Ireland, whose interests are identical, and to extirpate the most ancient root of Irish wrongs, two opposite sources of error must be remembered. It would be wise not to meddle with the land question at all, unless we effectually quiet the present tenants. At the same time it would be short-sighted to sacrifice the next generation. Ireland wants rest from agitation, but short lived rest must not be purchased by concessions pregnant with anarchy. In closing accounts with the past, it may be just and necessary to recognize prescriptive rights of doubtful origin, but it cannot be so to foster the growth of similar rights in the future.

The U. S. flagship Powhattan, Admiral Poor commanding, arrived.

SPAIN.

MADRID, October 29.—The government and people have experienced another ministerial crisis. The difficulty occurred directly on the question of the candidature of different parties for the throne, and the division caused by the votes of their different friends in the Ministry and Legislative bodies. Senors Silvela and Ardanczy resigned their portfolios.

A meeting of the Progressists was held last night for the purpose of naming a King, at which one hundred and ten delegates was for the Duke of Genoa, son of King Victor Emanuel. The Unionists will, however, vote against him. A meeting of the Monarchist party will be held this evening.

The chances of the Duke Montpensier are revived, and there appeared a probability of a national union with the Duke for king.

MADRID, October 30.—Senor Ardauz has laid the budget before the Cortes. The excess of receipts over expenditures are estimated at £100,000 sterling.

The poll tax is suppressed, and civil salaries are reduced twenty per cent., and clerical thirty per cent.

MADRID, October 31.—Senor Ardanoz, in his budget just submitted to the Cortes, announces that the financial deficit for the current year amounts to 52,000,000 reals. He looks forward with hope to the ensuing fiscal year, extending from January 1870 to 1871, his estimates for which show, as before reputed, a surplus in favor of the treasury.

The prospects of the election of the Duke of Genoa to the throne of Spain continue to improve. The number of deputies in the Cortes known to be in his favor is increasing. Yesterday 110 members, among them Radicals, openly pronounced for him, but the majority of the people seem to be hostile to his election.

The merchants have presented a petition in favor of Duke Montpensier.

It is again reported that the Ministers Ardanezy and Silvila tendered their resignations.

It was officially announced in the Cortes yesterday by General Prim that Government hoped to withdraw, at an early day, the decree establishing martial law, but at present such a step could not be taken, because conspirators still remained at large, and cases of several rebel leaders were pending before Councils of War.

FRANCE.

PARIS, October 30.—A rumor is current that the Emperor is again indisposed.

Gen. Fleury, Minister to Russia, departed to-day for St. Petersburg.

PARIS, October 31.—The Le Public newspaper says the report that the Emperor is suffering from a relapse of his former illness is false. On Friday the Emperor experienced some rheumatic pains, but on Saturday they had disappeared and the Emperor was quite well.

No meeting of the Ministerial Council has been held at Compiegne since the Emperor's return.

Prince Napoleon had an interview with the Emperor yesterday. This event, coupled with the sudden arrival of Emile Ollivier in Paris, has caused a revival of the rumors that ministerial changes are contemplated.

It is given out that one of the special objects of General Fleury's mission to St. Petersburg is to induce Russia to join the other great powers in a general disarmament.

SOUTH AMERICA.

LISBON, October 26.—The Regular mail steamer from South America ports has arrived, and bringing dates from Rio Janeiro to October 18th.

Gold Exchange Bank—New York Press Club Re-Union—Rumor Says Gen. Burnside is to Succeed Butterfield—Private Advices from Europe.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, October 30, 1869.

The receivership of the Gold Exchange Bank has not yet been dissolved by Judge Cordozo, but will probably be on Monday. A meeting of representatives of the bank and of the Gold Board has been held to consider whether the bank shall continue the clearances of gold, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached. A proposition has been advanced that all the officers of the bank resign.

O. W. Joslyn who alleges he was a broker for Jas. Fiske and Jay Gould, and that he bought gold for them, and that they repudiated their contracts, was before the Police Court to-day on a charge of purjury brought by Fiske and Gould. Joslyn waived an examination and gave bail to answer any indictment the Grand Jury may find against him.

All suits brought by Caldwell, Ashwuth and Herrick against the Gold Exchange Bank were discontinued in the Supreme Court to day, a satisfactory settlement having been made.

The first re-union of the season of the New York Press Club came off at the Astor House this evening. Capt. John R. Howell, agent of the New York State Associated Press, presided. The proceedings were quite informal, but so thoroughly pleasant and enjoyable, and the collation so excellent, that it was agreed to continue the gathering in the future at the Astor.

Gen. Carey, Bishop Quigley, and other clergymen, left for Europe to-day.

The case of Assistant Treasurer Butterfield obtained fresh interest to-day by the arrival from Washington of Solicitor Boufield. There is a rumor that the Treasurer's office has been offered to Gen. Burnside.

Private letters from Europe show that the trouble in Dalmatia will prove to be of a serious nature. The insurgents are determined upon accomplishing their independence of Austria, which power will use her utmost endeavors to prevent any further loss of territory. It is rumored that Russia is covertly assisting the Dalmatians in order to weaken Austria.

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer at New York to give public notice that the sale of gold and purchase of bonds will be continued without change during the month of November.

NEW YORK, October 30.—The Herald's St. Domingo correspondence, October 15, states that Gen. Babcock is still there gathering statistics and holding long interviews with President Baez, from which the inference is drawn that annexation to the United States is under consideration.

Senor Lemus, the Cuban agent in this country, says the Junta did not appoint Captain Higgins to command of the Hornet; that the vessel having been presented to the Junta by certain parties who reserved the right to appoint her officers, the Junta suspect that Captain Higgins was guilty of treachery, as it is said his wife left New York when the Hornet sailed and went to Washington in time to meet her husband on his arrival there.

ST. LOUIS.

Further of the Stonewall Disaster—Dispatch from Capt. Taylor—The Wreck Still Burning—Thieves Carrying away the Freight—The Precise Longitude of St. Louis.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

ST. LOUIS, October 31.—The Republican has received a dispatch from Capt. Taylor, one of the committee that left here last night for the wreck of the Stonewall which says: "No bodies found to-day. Those buried yesterday names unknown. Several persons picked up below here yesterday, alive, but I have not been able to learn their names. Wreck still burning. Freight in the hold uninjured, but being stolen rapidly. If the Board of Underwriters had sent a tug down $50,000 worth of property could have been saved. Whisky, pork and flour is going in every direction. The safe of the boat has been taken out and is in the hands of Judge Henderson Justice of the Peace. Capt. Scott, the first clerk, Elbert, and Capt. Dowty, of New Orleans, are surely lost."

The friends and relatives of the lost by the Stonewall disaster are arriving at Neely's Landing. No bodies have yet risen to the surface of the river. Eight sets of grapling irons have been put in operation, but with what result is not known. Explorations along the river bank for several miles have been made, but at last accounts no additional bodies had been found.

An elegant set of colors were presented to McCoole, the pugilist, last night. He is said to be in better condition than ever before, and his friends are sanguine that he will be victorious in the coming fight.

Mr. F. Flake, of the United States Coast Survey, arrived here last evening for the purpose of determining the precise latitude and longitude of St. Louis, with the view of ascertaining the geographical position of the station near Alton, Illinois, at which observations of the eclipse, on August 7th, were made.

DETROIT.

Free Traders in Detroit—Meeting and Speeches—League Formed—Protectionists Want to Debate the Question, but are Denied.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

DETROIT, Oct. 30.—This evening a very large and enthusiastic meeting of the leading citizens of Detroit was held at City Hall, to listen to addresses by Prof. Perry, of Williams College, Gen. Brinkerhoff, of Ohio, and Mahlon Sands, of New York, Secretary of the Free Trade League. Hon. Richard Hawley was called to the chair. Prof. Perry was introduced and was received with decided enthusiasm. He spoke eloquently for an hour upon the great evils of the existing tariffs, and the best means of effecting the much desired modification. Professor Perry commenced by saying: "A tariff is a tax and nothing else. It has nothing to give; it only demands. It is law and gospel, doctrine and precept; it is thou shalt pay, from its very nature. It is negative and not positive. It is a symbol, is minus and not plus. A tariff has necessarily two effects: First—to raise the price of foreign commodities. Second—to restrict the market for home commodities.

These two effects were illustrated at length. The speaker then proceeded to show the difference between a revenue and a protective tariff. For revenue tariff, the rates should be on a few articles, simple in form, collectable on effects, and generally at a low rate of duties, on fifteen or twenty articles of luxury and comfort. This will demonstrably realize all the revenue from customs the government needs, and thus allow an entire remission of duties on all raw materials, such as iron, wool, lumber, and others that enter into the process of labor. Or an entire remission of duties on most of the necessaries of life, such as salt, woolen shirts, cotton thread, blankets, and other things the price of which is enormously raised by the present rates of duty.

The principle of protection, so called, was then explained and illustrated, and shown to be—first, unjust in principle; second, iniquitous in practice; third, ultimately defeating its own ends. The speaker expressed confidence that such a system of monopoly and loss as our present tariff will not long be tolerated by the intelligent American people who love equality, and demand for all a fair field and no favors.

Prof. Perry was followed by General Brinkerhoff, of Ohio, in an exceedingly able and pertinent argument, intercepted with statisticts, and facts which could not be controverted, and showing conclusively how heavily and unjustly the tariff now in force is bearing upon the great masses.

Mr. Malone Sands, Secretary of the Free Trade League, also spoke briefly, setting forth the object and workings of the organization he represents.

Judge Walker offered a resolution thanking the distinguished gentleman who had addressed the meeting which was unanimously adopted. Brief addresses were also made by several citizens, after which a Committee, composed of Ducan Stewart, A. P. Bridge, Judge C. J. Walker, W. H. Craig and Wm. A. Butler, were appointed to organize a Free Trade League in this city.

The appointment of the committee was violently opposed by the Protectionists in the audience, who asked for delay, and said they courted discussion, and would unite in the formation of a joint debating society. The free traders expressed distrust of their motives, urged immediate action, and carried their point.

VISITORS to the Hoosac tunnel have need to exercise constant caution for the safety of their hats as well as of their heads. A LETTER has been received in St. Louis from Sam Hildebrand, the notorious outlaw, stating that he had come to the conclusion that he could no longer keep up a war against the whole country, and begging to be "let alone." He promises that he will never more molest anybody, and will in future act like an honest and peaceable man. He is now in southern Illinois.

A SCHOOL TEACHER, of Manchester, Connecticut, compelled a delicate and extremely sensitive little girl eight years of age to stand upon the floor of the class room for five hours, for the reason that she could not answer a question in geography. The little girl went home in a state of such nervous excitement that brain fever ensued and she died within forty-eight hours.

THE Chinese residents of San Francisco recently commenced their annual clearing out of devils. The musicians went after the cloven-footed gentry straight from the word go, creating racket sufficient to raise the biggest devil in the city. The exorcistic ceremonies continued for five days and nights, the whole closing with the burning of the various bamboo figures that ornamented the temple where the sacrifices were conducted.

THERE is a libel suit in the town of Leverett, Mass., growing out of the Amherst agricultural fair. Two gentlemen had flowers on exhibition, but credit for all the flowers was given to one of them in the newspaper report. SOME boys in Cincinnati stole the bowels of a hand organ which belonged to a minstrel who was stone deaf. The next morning he took his place and ground away as gaily as ever, producing, of course, no audible result. The bypassers appeared to like that sort of thing, and contributed so liberally that the troubadour divined that something must be wrong. Investigation disclosed his loss, but the unexpected pecuniary favor with which his outbreak of silence was received inclines him to let the intestines of the thing go and run the shell for awhile.

RECENTLY Mrs. Harriet Cady died in Freedom, Portage county, Ohio, of dropsy, from which she had been a sufferer for three years. Her weight when in health was about two hundred pounds, but the disease constantly increased her size, and at the time of her she death measured six feet one inch around the body, each knee being three feet seven inches in circumference. At times it took six men to take care of her, and at her burial eight men were required to lower her remains into the grave. Her weight then was estimated at full six hundred pounds.

A PARAGRAPH is going the rounds of the press, to the effect that Colonel Lawrence Orton Williams, who was executed as a Confederate spy at Franklin, Tenn., in 1863, escaped, and is now a General in the Cuban army. The editor of the St. Louis Dispatch, who, as an officer on the staff of General Watkins, was detailed to see that the verdict of the court martial was properly executed, says: "We saw him hanged, coffined and buried, and if he was smuggled away by friends, it was only as a lifeless body. Life was extinct when he was buried, and we have a suspicion that the man is yet dead."

A QUARTETTE of German politicians met in a saloon at Chicago a few evenings since, grew merry over numerous bottles of wine, and finally became utterly oblivious, their bodies literally strewing the floor of the apartment. The proprietor desiring to "close up" for the night, called a carriage, and having deposited his customers therein, directed the driver where to leave them—the one in the left corner at No. —— street, the one in the right corner on another street, "de leetle feller on de back seat," on another, and "de odder one" on another. The carriage was driven off, but presently returned, the driver desiring that his passengers be "sorted over again," as in passing a sharp corner the jolt of the vehicle threw them all in a heap, and he could not tell which from 'tother.

THE Philadelphia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals offer rewards of fifty dollars, in two cases, for the arrest and conviction of an individual who seems to have a mania for torturing dogs, having in one instance covered a canine with coal oil, and then setting fire to it caused death in a fearful and horrible manner.

AN old and honored citizen of White township, Indiana county, Mr. James Hamilton, Sr., died on the 23d, in his eighty-third year. He was one of the earnest, energetic abolitionists of the preceding generation, and many a poor fugitive from slavery found a hearty welcome at his humble door, at a time when it was perilous in the extreme to harbor such.

IN Chester county, recently, a jury appointed to view and lay out a road made a favorable report, but it was set aside on the ground that the public notice required to be given had become obliterated, having been written with purple ink, and the sun having removed all the writing with the exception of a single signature, which had been made with black ink.

THE Waynesburg Repository says the Monongahela Valley Railroad is to be put on a better basis about the first of the year. The company has proposals from three different parties, each of which is anxious to go to work at once upon the road. About the first of January next a new set of officers of the company will be elected, when the building will at once be undertaken.

Cox, resigned; Montgomeryville, Montgomery county—change of name to Montgomery Square.

THE Waynesburg Repository says: "We are informed, on reliable authority, that very little of Packer's money found its way into Greene county. There was not enough to buy a dozen votes. Nay, the Chairman of the County Committee had not enough left on election day to hire a team to go out into the country and electioneer. If this isn't turning the cold shoulder on Greene county it is very strange. Billy McMullin knows how to handle money."

THE Miners' Journal tells of a horrible and desperately wicked act, perpetrated near Pottsville on the 19th ult. Three boys built a fire on the road between Pottsville and Cressona, and seizing a lad about twelve years of age, son of a laborer named Hernickel, held him over it until he was fearfully burned. They then fled. When found the boy was in a terrible condition. The motive for the deed was revenge for information given of some boys who had robbed a neighbor's spring house.

A SHORT time since one Patrick Marley, in the employ of the Government as distillery watchman at Philadelphia, was murderously assailed while in the discharge of his duties, and was subsequently promoted to the position of Assistant Assessor, receiving his commission week before last. On Wednesday last he was arraigned before a U. S. Commissioner, on the charge of having received fifty dollars as a bribe from a man whom he discovered in the act of illicitly rectifying whisky, and was held to bail to answer the charge.

The Frying Pan.

"Died of a frying-pan," is the epitaph which the Columbus (Ga) Enquirer says appropriately belongs to the graveyards of thousands of Southern people, on account of the manner of preparing food in that part of the country. The editor says of the Southern man:

His standard food is a piece of bacon fried, the fat taken and with flour or meat mixed into a heavy mass and consigned to the inevitable frying pan, and out comes a lump of leathery-looking something which the stomach of an ostrich could not digest. Give him a chicken, and what does he do with it? Cuts it up, and into the frying-pan it goes; after being slowly simmered until hard, it is put into a deep dish and grease poured over it, and what is not soaked up in the chicken is made way with by soaking his frying-pan bread in it. Give him a rich, juicy steak, and into the frying-pan it goes, and is slowly simmered and simmered until no knife will cut it, and then eaten with heavy bread soaked in the remaining fat; and thus good, wholesome food, in quantity sufficient to afford a wholesome meal for a French artisan's family, is by the frying-pan process rendered not only barely enough for one man, but converted into a slow poison and a fruitful source of disease.

Scarcely a day passes but some poor sufferer applies to me from the "Frying-pan Disease," which relief I am unable to give, without an entire change in his or her habits; and unless such change is effected, whose epitaph will be

"Died of a Frying Pan."

PETROLEUM NEWS.

New and Important Oil Strikes—The Parker's Landing District.

The Titusville Herald of Saturday says:

On Wednesday last a new well was struck on the W. McClintock farm, Petroleum Centre, and has since been producing at the rate of thirty-five to fifty barrels daily. It is owned by Mr. Ed. W. Fox. Another new well was struck on the Beatty farm, West Hickory creek, on the same day, and is also producing from thirty-five to fifty barrels per day. It is owned by J. W. Beatty and others. The new flowing well struck on Kier, Hasson & Co.'s tract, Oil City is yielding, about thirty-two barrels daily. One of the most important strikes that has been made in some time occurred on West Pithole creek, Salisbury farm, a few days ago. This well was drilled between wells that have produced black oil for several months past. It was sunk below the black oil rock into the sixth or green oil rock, and is now yielding fifteen barrels of green oil daily, and the yield is increasing. The well is 800 feet deep, and the sixth rock is twenty feet in thickness. The working interest is owned by Fee Brother, formerly of the Atkinson farm. By this strike the green oil belt has been greatly extended.

There are now in the Parkers Landing district thirty five to forty producing wells, the yield of which ranges from three to fifty barrels daily. The average daily yield of the district last month, as shown by the shipments and stocks, was about 430 barrels. During this month two wells were struck that produce twenty-five barrels each, one that produces thirty barrels, one that produces four barrels, and one that yields forty-five to fifty barrels. As there has been no decrease of importance, the total yield of the district must now be at least 530 barrels per day the week through. Only a few of the wells are pumped on Sundays, and the above average being for every day in the week, it is necessarily one-seventh less than the average during the days that the wells are worked.

—The wholesale liquor dealers in California have organized an association to operate with similar bodies in the eastern States.

7-40 GOLD BONDS.

W. BAILEY LANG & CO.

Offer a limited amount of the

CHICAGO, DANVILLE
AND VINCENNES
Railroad Company's
FIRST MORTGAGE
Sinking Fund Bonds,
At 95 and ACCRUED INTEREST.

The whole issue is $2,500,000, or less than $18,000 per mile of completed road, and is secured by First Mortgage upon 140 miles of Railroad, including equipment, franchises, and all present and future acquired property of the Company.

This loan, together with the $2,100,000 Capital Stock already taken, furnishes ample means to build and equip the entire line, including rolling stock and every requisite outfit of a first-class railroad. Fifty-five miles, from Chicago to Momence, are completed and in operation, and much of the remaining portion is in a state of forwardness.

These Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and pay 7 per cent. semi-annual interest in gold, or nearly ten per cent. in currency.

BOTH PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST
Are payable in New York city, in UNITED STATES GOLD COIN.

These Bonds offer peculiar advantages to investors. The holders of Government securities or Pacific Railroad Bonds may exchange them at a handsome profit. The holder of $10,000 in Governments may exchange them for $12 000 in these bonds, and receive $500 to $600 cash on the exchange. Then instead of six per cent gold interest on $10,000, and a still lower rate after their maturity, he will receive 7 per cent. gold, for forty years, on $12,000—a difference in profit that will in the end nearly equal the face of the bond.

The holder of a Pacific Railroad bond may sell—perhaps at a small loss—and re-invest in a bond of this road and receive 7 per cent. gold interest for forty years, instead of 6 per cent. gold for thirty years. The extra one per cent. profit on his investment would, as a sinking fund, at compound interest, amount to the par value of the bond itself.

Starting at Chicago, the C., D. & V. Railroad extends in a southerly direction to the eastern counties of Illinois, the whole adjacent country being well settled and unsurpassed in richness of soil by any of the prairie States. For nearly one-third its length, the road passes through that will abundantly supply Chicago with the best coal at a low price, for generations to come. It brings the CELEBRATED BRAZIL MINES, whose coal is unequalled for the manufacture of iron, ninety miles nearer to the city of Chicago, which henceforward may become the greatest iron manufacturing and distributing center in the country.

The road receives a large volume of freight as fast as it is opened for business, and a very moderate estimate upon its local business only, gives a net revenue equal to nearly

THREE TIMES THE SUM
Required for the Interest and Sinking Fund
upon the ENTIRE ISSUE OF ITS BONDS. (See pamphlet.)

The through traffic must add considerably to this, as the road forms part of the

from Chicago, via Terre Haute, Vincennes, Evansville and Nashville, to New Orleans, Mobile and Pensacola.

Pamphlets in more detail, with maps, can be had of us on application, or of our Agents in Pittsburgh, S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Avenue.

Adhering to our positive rule never to offer anything for sale which we do not ourselves believe to be good, we add that we have personally examined this entire line of road, finished and projected, as well as the country through which it runs, and its full character and capacity for verifying the foregoing estimates; the result of which is, that we offer these securities with every confidence in their full worth and soundness.

OFFICIAL PAPER
of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Allegheny County.

MONDAY, NOV. 1, 1869.

WE learn that the Alabama negotiations were reopened by our Minister at London, in September, and that an elaborate correspondence is now going on, of which the public may gather no correct estimate until the President submits his annual Message.

THE NEW LEGISLATURE is superior to the last one in point both of character and ability. Let us hope, since improvement has commenced, that it will continue until both Houses of the General Assembly shall be all that can reasonably be desired.

PROVIDENCE specially interfered to help the defeat of Mr. Packer. The disastrous flood that prevailed in the Delaware took many hundreds more Democrats than Republicans away from Wayne and Pike counties to look up vagrant rafts and to repair the Delaware and Hudson Canal. The Democratic loss in this way approached near a thousand.

THE premature retirement of Mr. RUSSEL ERRETT from the Senate is mentioned with regret in various parts of the Commonwealth. In his service of two years he established a high reputation for rare intelligence and probity. His successor, Mr. HOWARD, is a lawyer of excellent attainments, in the maturity of his strength, and of high personal character.

THE Beaver Radical pricks the last opposition bubble, which charges that Judge Brewster received the Attorney Generalship as a reward for partizan services in his judgment ousting certain Democratic intruders in local office at Philadelphia, with the remark that "the only office of any possible consequence to the success of Gov. Geary, involved in litigation, was that of Mayor, and the Democratic incumbent was sustained by the Court."

THE ANTHRACITE MINERS of Pennsylvania know much more about their own peculiar interests than outsiders. They are in no alarm lest any reasonable bill they may desire for their security while at work may be defeated before the Legislature. Nor is there any essential disagreement between them and the companies or individual operators on this matter. All radical means of security must enhance the price of coal, or else put down wages. If the former result shall be produced, the outsiders who now claim to be the only friends of the miners will be the first to complain.

IT ALWAYS PLEASES us to know that people are anxious to read the GAZETTE, but it is not so agreeable to have them steal the copies they peruse. Full one-third of all our daily packages, addressed to particular places on the east side of the Alleghenies, are pilfered from the mail bags, for they certainly do not reach their destinations. This pilfering has been going on for a long time; so that we suspect the culprits may be Democrats, appointed by Johnson, and still allowed to hold over. But whoever the offenders may be, they give us and some of our subscribers no little annoyance. Only from reluctance to be engaged in compounding a felony, we might be inclined to secure a cessation of depredations by offering to supply the thieves with copies gratuitously, provided they would stipulate not simply to read, but also to profit by what the GAZETTE contains. Villainous agents of the Government! pray let our packages have free course.

THE Alleghenian, of Cambria county, and the Greensburg Republican, take decided ground in favor of restoring the spring elections. The latter, a Democratic journal, makes the strong point against the present law, that it imposes upon the election officers, especially in large precincts and where there are many local offices to be filled, too severe a labor in counting the votes within the period required by existing statutes. This objection has great force, as will be admitted by all who have observed the type of the general experience at the late election. We have never before heard so many complaints, irrespective of party lines, of the delays and inaccuracies in the scrutiny of the ballots. If the spring elections be not restored, the provisions of existing law for ascertaining and certifying results must be amended to meet the increased difficulties. The Republican remarks:

> Very many citizens are in favor of the proposition to elect county officers, as well as borough and township officers, in March instead of October.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

State elections will be held to-morrow in New York, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Wisconsin and New Jersey for State officers and Legislatures, in Maryland for a State Controller, and in Illinois for a Constitutional Convention. Texas and Mississippi hold full State elections on the 30th of this month. The opposition are claiming New York, New Jersey and Maryland, but a full vote will carry the former State for the Republicans.

BOLTING A BOLTER.

Mr. HORACE GREELEY has for a long period avowed his faith in bolting as a remedy for bad nominations, and we are not inclined to deny that his position in that regard is impregnable. No endorsement of a caucus can place a citizen under obligation to vote for a candidate who is unfit for the place. Nor has Mr. GREELEY failed to practice in accordance with his preaching. All last summer and so far during the autumn, he has been hammering away at bad aspirants for nomination, or at those who have actually succeeded in getting their names upon tickets. His denunciations have not been general but specific. He has plainly called offenders by name, and stated in what their misdemeanors consisted. Herein he has set an example worthy of all acceptance.

But Mr. GREELEY recently became a candidate; probably not because he wanted the office in connection with which he was named; perhaps, under an expectation that his defeat was inevitable. But his party wanted his name as a symbol to rally the largest possible number of votes; perchance to compel success in a doubtful canvass. His doctrine of bolting has been applied to himself. All his enemies—and no man can be as prominent as he has been for many years without having plenty of them—have accepted the opportunity as a favorable one to dirk him, or at least to threaten to do so. They proclaim him to be a bad candidate, though they fail in specifications to establish the conviction in disinterested minds that he is really bad. But he is made to understand that each man is bad in the estimation of those who hate him, even if the hatred proceeds solely from the base motive of envy.

This is not surprising. The names of a good many men and women are found in the lists of both saints and criminals. Even the name of the God-Man stands in an analagous category. It may help farther to show how conceptions of personal character differ to mention that when LAMARTINE sought out in her old age the daughter of the poor cabinet maker, DUPLAY, with whom ROBESPIERRE boarded in the plentitude of his power in Paris, he found that she remembered him as the most amiable and conscientious of mortals, and marveled that any body should think differently of him. To her he was what he seemed; but to those who were sent headless to their last account at his bidding, he appeared to be a monster.

It is edifying to witness the equanimity with which Mr. GREELEY accepts the application of his theory of bolting to himself. He bids all Republicans who want to vote against him to do so and be done with it. That is taking opposition philosophically. If all candidates would take bolting in as graceful a way, the amenities of politics would be enhanced.

Next Tuesday will tell how the Republicans of New York, and Mr. GREELEY with them, will come out. That they have a decided majority of the legal voters on their side we fully believe; but we apprehend they may be overborne by fraud, as they often have been heretofore. If Mr. GREELEY shall be elected Controller, the State will gain an upright and intelligent officer, but he will be apt to find the office an "elephant" which he would much sooner have off his hands than on.

THE SOMERSET DISTRICT CONTEST.

We have reprinted the very generous language with which Mr. SCULL, who has just been legally chosen Senator in the Somerset district, has disclaimed any purpose to take advantage of mere technicalities in defending his seat from the claims of his late Democratic competitor. The disclaimer is as creditable to his sense of honor as it is unusual in partisan politics.

But, fortunately the case involves certain meritorious points which will relieve him from what might otherwise have seemed to him an inflexible duty. The Commonwealth has alone the right to pronounce, and through its proper organ, the Senate, upon hearing of the testimony, upon the serious question whether the plain letter of the law shall be observed or disregarded. We are quite sure that Mr. SCULL will, by no act of his own, however generously impulsive, preclude the Senate from its legitimate adjudication on this point. The question is one of very great consequence to all our people, who have a right to demand a definite decision which shall either legitimatize or finally check the loose practices heretofore prevailing with election officers.

It is also understood that the legal vote, as the legal canvass of the poll, is on the side of the Senator-elect. It is susceptible of proof that a large number of illegal ballots were colonized over, from Republican precincts along the line of the incomplete Connellsville railway, into Democratic precincts in Bedford county, and there cast solid for the opposition candidate. This and other frauds on the poll, such as that the majority claimed for Findlay would melt away in an hour under a legal scrutiny of the boxes, are so well known in the district, that we are advised that no serious contest is contemplated by the opposition. The Senate cannot avoid giving the seat, prima facie, to Mr. SCULL, upon the legal aspects of the case, and his title will be amply confirmed upon further investigation.

It is evident, therefore, that our friends have a clear right to depend upon the co-operation of the Senator elect, in maintaining the Republican ascendancy in the district. We are also gratified to learn that such is his own view of the case.

THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF CRIME.

The Tioga Agitator cites a case occurring in a village and county "near the centre of the State," where a man "of wealth and social standing," without any just provocation, shot a colored boy, his own servant, and was therefor held to bail for trial. The District Attorney prepared an indictment and laid it before the Grand Jury, the foreman of which sent for the defendant, took his testimony, refused to hear other testimony for the Commonwealth, and the bill was ignored. It is to be regretted that the Agitator is not more specific. Let it name the county!

The same journal denounces the too widely prevailing practice which permits the composition of felonies, or the suppression of prosecutions by virtue of private agreements between the parties directly concerned. We heartily endorse its pungent strictures upon this most reprehensible of abuses in the administration of our criminal law. We quote:

> The better disposed classes of society have little idea of the universality of this practice. When a man detects a neighbor in the commission of a crime and prosecutes, the laws of all civilized lands know no issue for the offender, out of their clutches, save by trial and discharge. But such as have observed these affairs know, alas, too well, that not a tenth part of such cases ever go to a jury. Nine in every ten of such cases are "settled." How? Commonly upon the payment of money by the accused. But to settle such affairs for a consideration, either of money or anything else, is a felony of itself, in a majority of instances. We deny that any public prosecutor is ever legally privileged to consent to such a settlement; and we insist that whenever indictment is found neither attorney, nor Judge, nor party, can legally do what a jury of twelve men are especially authorized to do.
> Having no sympathy with crime or criminals we urge now, as always, the certain punishment of crime. Make the infliction of penalties for wrong doing certain. Make it dangerous to compound a felony. Let Grand Juries who openly defy the law be arraigned by the Bench and indicted at once. Let perjury, which is getting fashionable in high places, be dealt with. Why, in New York, there is a society composed of men who contract to swear to suit employers—for so much cash! But perjury may be found everywhere. Every lawyer in Pennsylvania can tell you that there is abundance of false swearing in every important suit. The astonishing thing is, that no crime is so easily detected, none so seldom punished.
> The people can have this condition of things as long as they please—not a day longer. Of course it will work its own cure, if left alone. But such compulsory cures always involve a dangerous reaction. There is danger in such cures that passion may override judgment, and even-handed justice be denied to the guilty, as it now is to society. Such reactions are dangerous. They involve violence and popular fury. Let us be warned by these symptoms of decline, and work together to reform courts and juries.

THE Waynesburg Repository assigns, among other causes for the small Republicans majority in this State, the following:

> "In the first place, Gov. Geary was very unpopular with the "politicians." A continual raid had been made against them. The whole cry of such papers as the State Guard and the Commercial was about the corruption of the politicians, the people vs. the politicians, and such stuff. In the appointment of men to manage the campaign they were mostly left out. The men who made the Republican party in the State, and who had so often led it on to victory, were passed by. The result was what might have been expected. Whether politicians are honest or not is of no consequence so far as conducting a campaign is concerned. The party that tries to get along without them will come out behind.

THE Genius of Liberty (Dem.) twits Judge Woodward for the reported blunders by which he has contrived to "make the worthy man (Packer) ridiculous in the eyes of the nation." The same journal also nails to the record the following bit of history:

> It is well known that on the night before the formal assembling of the late Democratic State Convention, General Cass was the choice of a majority of the Delegates, but by noon the next day a number, even some of those instructed and personally pledged for Cass, were found to have mysteriously passed over to the Packer interest. Had these men voted as their constituents would have had them vote, the real choice of the party would have been nominated, and would have been elected by an overwhelming majority

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

SLEEP AND ITS DERANGEMENTS. By William A. Hammond, M. D., Professor of Diseases of the Mind and Nervous System, and of Chemical Medicine, in the Bellevue Hospital, Medical College, New York. Published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

A work of this character, from one so competent as Dr. Hammond, late Surgeon General of the United States Army, cannot fail to command the attention of the profession and general reader. It is written in a popular form, and is not burdened with professional terms and phrases, but in plain language. The philosophy of sleep, the necessity, the cause, phenomena, and state of the mind during sleep, are discussed upon broad principles, and in keeping with the advanced views of science. In the consideration of each part, illustrations in point are given to demonstrate the position of the author. Startling facts are revealed relative to sleep that should be heeded by brain-workers, or the sad results of over-taxing the mind and by neglecting to secure proper sleep, will be felt sooner or later. Professor Hammond is a vigorous writer, and dissects his subjects with a keenness that is refreshing.

THE NEIGHBOR'S HOUSE. By the author of "The New Commandment," etc. Published by the American Tract Society, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

This work happily illustrates the reforming influences of a well ordered home. The episodes of life, particularly in the case of the members of two families, are graphically described, and the severe lessons of discipline they passed through were finally the means of lifting them to a higher life. The sad ending of young Gordon produced fruit, and was the means of molding the character of others for good. The story is delightfully told, and it cannot fail to leave pleasant feelings after its perusal.

BESSIE AT SCHOOL. By Joanna H. Mathews. Published by Robert Carter & Brothers, New York. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

Scenes of child-life are pictured in this volume by one admirably adapted to write for young people. The various phases of early childhood are brought out in life-like words, and all through the book, lessons of incalculable value are taught in a form that will impress young children. Its healthy moral tone is commendable, and makes it a suitable volume for parents to put into the hands of their children.

THE CROWN WITHOUT THE CONFLICT. By Rev. R. H. Lundie, Liverpool, England.

TIBBY THE CHARWOMAN. Fireside Library. Published by Robert Carter & Brothers, New York. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

The first named is a brief account of musings on the death of children. It contains much that will interest the bereaved, and contains suggestions where to find solace and comfort. The saving power of Divine grace is richly illustrated in the life of "Tibby the Charwoman," who occupied an humble sphere in the activities of life. Lessons are also taught in this tiny volume that are worthy to be stored away in the heart for calm reflection.

KATHARINE'S EXPERIENCE. By the author of "The Minister's Wife," &c. Published by the American Tract Society, Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co. Pittsburgh.

In this work we have described, in graphic words, the events of a young woman's life, beginning with her school days and ending with her happy union with a minister. The narrative is of itself interesting, but principles are embodied in the story that will arrest youthful minds. There is nothing in it that will offend the most fastidious, and there is also a healthy glow in the story, that makes it readable and profitable. It is a capital book for a Sunday School library, and for the family circle. The publications of this Society are of a character that it is safe to commend them, and "Katharine's Experience," is of this class.

LAKE SHORE SERIES. By Oliver Optic. Published by Lee and Shepard, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

Like all the writings of the widely-known and much admired "Oliver Optic," the Lake Shore Series contain sound practical knowledge for young people, and the style is elevated and high toned. The stories were originally published in Oliver Optic's Magazine "Our Boys and Girls." Four of the six volumes of the series are already published. The first is entitled, "Through by Daylight; or the Young Engineer of the Lake Shore Railroad." The hero is a fine specimen of bright Young America—who illustrates by his acts that his heart is pure and true. "Lightning Express" is the next volume, which relates to the same road, though the war between rival academies occupies considerable space. The third volume, "On Time," which brings out in bold relief the exploits of a brave young captain, who gave evidence in his actions that his heart was influenced by Christian principles. The book happily illustrates the precept, "Love your enemies." Next volume, fourth, "Switch Off," in which the principal incidents relate to the war among the students of the Toppleton Institute. The same Gospel principle, "Love your enemies" is brought out in this story. The fifth and sixth volumes, "Brake Up," and "Bear and Forbear" will soon appear. Mr. Adams has the happy art of conveying great and cardinal principles in his sea and land stories, that leave good impressions upon his youthful readers.

SYBARIS AND OTHER HOMES. By Edward E. Hale. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

Readers of Mr. Hale's, "If, Yes, Perhaps," have an idea of the genius of this author, and of his wonderful power in the use of language, singular in the extreme, too, for one engaged in the ministry; not that his vocation is a bar to the authorship of such works. His style certainly illustrates the liberal views which flourish on New England soil, as no where else, as luxuriantly as least. The work cannot fail to interest the reader, as the style is fascinating—magnetic in its power over the mind. Some idea of its contents may be gathered from the following topics: "My Visit to Sybaris;" "How they lived at Naguadavick;" "How they live in Vineland;" "How they live in Boston, and how they die there," and "Homes for Boston Laborers."

HESTER STRONG'S LIFE WORK, or The Mystery Solved. By Mrs. S. A. Southworth, author of "Lawrence Monroe," &c. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston. For sale by S. A. Clarke & Co., Pittsburgh.

This is a tale of New England life, developing the habits, customs, and predominant religious thought of that section. It illustrates the severer type of life duties, and the trials and temptations incident thereto. Throughout the volume there is a healthy sentiment, in which great lessons of duty to God and each other are taught. The chapter relating to the late war, and the part taken by a brave one who died in the struggle, adds interest to the story.

MISCELLANIES. By W. M. Thackeray, Vol. I and II. Household Edition. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

In view of the signal success attending the Household Edition of Thackeray's Novels, the publishers have yielded to the popular wish of the public, and have commenced to publish the miscellaneous writings of the distinguished satirist, in the same style as the series of novels, making an additional series of five volumes. The volumes are reprinted from the last English edition, which embraces numerous choice papers never before collected. The first volume contains the "Memoirs of Barry Lyndon, Esq., written by himself, with the History of Samuel Titmarsh and the great Hoggarty Diamond, and Burlesques." The second contains "The Paris Sketch Book," "Memoirs of Mr. Charles J. Yellowplush," "The Irish Sketch Book," and "Notes of a Journey from Cornhill to Grand Cairo." This series is gotten up in the charming style of Read's and Elliott's works, cheap, handsome, and convenient size.

GEO. ELLIOT'S NOVELS. Silas Mariner, and Scenes of Clerical Life. By Geo. Elliot. Household Edition. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston. For sale by R. S. Davis & Co., Pittsburgh.

Few writers have attained the eminence in the literary world, these modern times, than is awarded to the author of these novels. For beauty of thought, plot, and vigorous language, these works are models. The excellencies of this edition have been commended over and over again. We hardly know which part to commend most, "Silas Mariner," or "Scenes of Clerical Life," both being good.

CATHARINE. A story. By Ikey Solomons Esq., Jr, (W. M. Thackeray.) Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston.

This story originally appeared in Fraser's Magazine, thirty years ago, to counteract the ingenious influences of some popular fictions of that day. It is piquant and fasinating.

TOO BRIGHT TO LAST. A Novel. Published by Fields, Osgood & Co., Boston.

This pretty little story is reprinted from advance sheets. It represents Welsh love, and is not of the sensational cast of many of the novels. The characters are of a better type and not offensive to people of refined tastes.

AS a set-off to the great Œcumenical Council, there is to be a grand universal conference of Protestants from all countries held in New York in September, 1870. Nothing of this sort has ever taken place before, and it will doubtless excite much interest in both hemispheres. Rev. Dr. Schaff, of New York, has just returned from Europe, where he has completed his arrangements with trans-Atlantic Protestants for the conference next year. His report will be awaited with much interest by all classes.

SPOHR, the composer, has written a new opera called Jessonda, which has been produced at Munich. Not only the music but also the plot is novel, being a bold departure from the usual Italian love stories, where matters and things are often sung in a foreign language which would not be tolerated, if spoken in the vernacular, upon any stage in the country. Instead of anything of this kind, Spohr's librettist has taken for his subject the escape of a Hindoo widow from performing the slightly disagreeable religious ceremonial of "suttee." It is not the only opera with an unobjectionable plot, but it is one more, and that is certainly a good thing.

WE HAVE always been disposed to treat St. Louis well. We are too far off to look upon her as a rival city, and we have never had needless jealousies of her. When opportunity offered we have always spoken a good word for that city, and feel deeply the ingratitude recently evinced by one of her journals which with unaccountable malice asserts that Pittsburgh is "keeping up with the times" in the matter of murders and other crimes, and is almost equal to Chicago. Could anything be more malicious than that? An assault of the most violent character and totally unprovoked! In the language of the Bard of Avon we entreat those St. Louis editors to run to their houses and "pray to the gods to intermit the plague which needs must fall on such ingratitude."

AFTER a long but not wide separation the old and new school Presbyterian denominations have agreed to re-unite. The new body will consist of 4,130 ministers and 371,487 members all of one common faith and working, it is to be hoped harmoniously, for one common cause. But the work of union is only thus begun among the Presbyterians. There are still numerous important bodies, differing in some minor particulars, which have yet to be brought into the one great fold of that branch of the church. The principal of these are the Southern, United, Reformed, Cumberland and Associated Presbyterian churches, numbering in the aggregate some 2,176 ministers and 282,159 members. When all these are joined together in one common organization, there will indeed be occasion for rejoicing over so long a step towards the unity of Christians.

THE freedom of religious opinion in the United States has been largely exemplified in most of our great cities by the houses of worship erected by the different and almost innumerable sects. Jews and Gentiles, Catholics and Protestants, Greeks and Armenians all worship in New York, for instance, and even the Mormons are tolerated. But "Christian Charity" is to receive a very severe test shortly in New York where it is stated, the wealthy Chinese are about to erect a Joss house. We send missionaries to promulgate our own faith in China and, if they are molested, we send ships of war to avenge them. It now remains to be seen how we will tolerate this little bit of reciprocity from the celestials. There is something very distasteful in the idea of a heathen temple and heathen idols in our metropolis; but probably Christian churches and missionaries are as unpalatable to the inhabitants of Pekin.

SCIENTIFIC discoveries are so numerous now-a-days that we do not have time to become familiar with the properties of one before we are called upon to become acustomed to a number of others. The consequence of this is often a fatal one. Take for instance those important discoveries nitro glycerine and carbolic acid. We are frequently called upon to chronicle serious or fatal accidents resulting from their careless or ignorant use. If the people were more thoroughly acquainted with their several dangerous properties, the number of these casualities would probably be smaller. This being the case, would it not be well to oblige all dealers in new chemical articles to have printed upon the packages containing them a clear and understandable statement of the possible results of an ignorant use of them? Some few lives and limbs, at least, might be saved thereby.

SINCE ADVERTISING became a science there have been many very novel ideas conceived and carried out in a manner evincing much originality of genius. It is said of Gounod the composer, that after having produced a new opera, he causes a report to be bruited abroad that he has become deeply affected with religious ideas, regrets that he has ever produced anything so worldly as an opera, and intends to enter a religious retreat and compose, in the future, nothing more secular than an oratorio. This course is intended to lend an especial interest to the new opera, on account of being the last from so capable a pen. This is a very good dodge, but there is another almost its equal. Dawison, the greatest thespian artist on the German stage, retired some time since on account of failing health, and recently there have been reports circulating to the effect that he has entirely lost his mind, and these have now culminated in the rumor of his total and confirmed idiocy. But this, too, it seems was nothing but a "puff" extraordinary preceding his return to the boards at Dresden on New Year's day. The Foreign Barnums are certainly the equals of their American prototype.

AT the Judicial election in San Francisco, on the 20th instant, there were less than 13,000 votes in all polled, out of 21,373 in September, and 25,870 in November, 1868. The total vote of the State at the Presidential election was about 108,000; last September it fell as low as 91,000; on the 20th it did not exceed 56,600.

Curious and Suggestive.

SHAKSPEARE uses the word learn in the sense of to teach. The two words stand in a reciprocal relation so intimate as to sometimes sink all consideration of their strict grammatical use. The Bible, as translated, is full of grammatical errors, even to that glaring one of "Our Father which art in Heaven." The reason why this is so is referable to ignorance or want of care.

AGES before the time of Judas red hair was thought a mark of reprobation, both in the case of Typhon, who deprived his brother of the sceptre of Egypt, and Nebuchadnezzar, who acquired it in expiation of his atrocities. Even the donkey tribe suffered from this visitation, according to the proveab, "Wicked as a red ass." Asses of that color were held in such detestation among the Copts that every year they were in the habit of sacrificing one by hurling it from a high wall.

WHO can tell when tailoring became a distinct trade? In the third chapter of Genesis, 31st verse, we are informed that "unto Adam and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skin and clothed them," and from that time to this the art of making clothes has been carried on more or less in every clime where there has existed the slightest degree of civilization; still the inventions of thread and needles are of comparatively quite a modern date. The art of paying a tailor promptly in these times is much more difficult of explanation than the art of making clothes.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system. Its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

THE GREAT VITALIZER.

This title may be fairly given to a restorative which has taken precedence of all other tonic and alterative preparations for a period of nearly twenty years. During that long interval HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS may be truly said to have enjoyed unrivalled popularity. Many preparations have been got up to compete with it, but they have all fallen into its wake or sunk into oblivion for want of patronage. From the first, this now world-renowned Vegetable Tonic has been both medicinally and financially successful. Every year has added to the number of its friends, and the demand for it, based solely upon the experimental proofs of its excellence as a preventive and curative, seems to have no assignable limit. The medical profession sanction and approve its use, and it is now at the head of a class of medicines to which it belongs, the admitted, undisputed SOVEREIGN TONIC OF THE AGE. The statistics of the United States Revenue Department will verify the statement that it stands alone and unapproached in the magnitude of its sales as compared with those of any other proprietary remedy advertised on this side of the Atlantic.

THE EXPLANATION of this fact may be comprised in a few words. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is at once the purest, the safest and the most potent of all vegetable tonics, and the best antidote to every variety of malarious disease. Hence it is especially adapted to the present season of chilling dews and unwholesome vapors.

FRUIT CAN TOPS.

SELF LABELING
FRUIT-CAN TOP.
COLLINS & WRIGHT,
PITTSBURGH, PA.

We are now prepared to supply Tinners and Potters. It is perfect, simple, and as cheap as the plain top, having the names of the various Fruits stamped upon the cover, radiating from the center, and an index or pointer stamped upon the top of the can.

It is Clearly, Distinctly and Permanently LABELED, by merely placing the name of the fruit the can contains opposite the pointer and sealing in the customary manner. No preserver of fruit or good housekeeper will use any other after once seeing it. mh25

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays: 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October, 30, 1869.

REVIEW FOR THE WEEK.

This has been a very interesting week in oil circles, particularly during the last two or three days, nor is it confined to oil circles alone. The "corner in oil" seemed to be the principal theme of conversation among business men generally, particularly bankers. It is currently reported that some heavy capitalists, not directly engaged in the oil business, are largely interested in the present familiarly termed "bull movement," that they have not only loaned their credit, but advanced large sums of money in order to assist those who are managing it, and, as a consequence, this is pronounced one of the most formidable movements of the kind ever attempted in the history of the trade.

As we have repeatedly noted within the past few days, it has been persistently denied on the one hand that any such thing as a "corner" was contemplated, while it has been just as firmly asserted on the other hand that this was the prime object of the whole movement, and that the "ropes" have been laid for the last sixty days with this object in view. Within the past few days, spot refined has advanced about 4 to 5 cents, and it sold to-day for about 3 cents more than it would bring for November delivery. The public generally, appear to look upon the whole thing as an attempted "corner," and it does seem as though it was a partial success. Pittsburgh, it appears, has gone through thus far, all the "shorts," so far as we can learn, having succeeded in covering; though New York, it is said, was pretty badly squeezed, as there was a heavy October short interest there.

It was also rumored to-day, that the movements of yesterday and to-day are a mere foretaste of what is to follow next month, and that those who are short for November, and possibly December, will experience a rougher time of it than those who were short for this month. Whether or not there is any truth in the last rumor, time alone will develop, though it does look as though we are to have stirring times in the oil business during the balance of this year.

Receipts of crude this week, 17,842; last week, 20,895; from January 1st to date 730,834; same time 1868, 951,659. Exports refined this week, 30,537; last week 23,402; from January 1st to date, 486,227; same time last year, 586,196. Sales this week, 25,000 bbls crude, 16,500 bbls refined; last week, 25,500 bbls crude, 25,000 refined. From the above it will be seen that the daily shipments this week averaged over 5,000 per day, and the aggregate for the week was the largest of the season.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, October 30, 1869.

Business, generally, has been rather slack during the past week, and at present there are no indications of any immediate improvement. The demand for almost everything is confined entirely to supplying immediate wants, and, besides, the want of confidence in regard to values, has a tendency to retard business and restrict operations. The grain market is particularly panicky, owing to the steady decline in prices for sometime past, and it does not look as though the bottom had been touched yet; holders, generally, if compelled to sell now would lose money. Flour, also, is weak and drooping with pretty large stocks almost everywhere.

APPLES—Are coming in more freely and the market easier, though prices are unchanged, ranging from $3 to 4 per bbl.

ASHES—Steady but unchanged—4@4½ for Soda, and 9 for Pearls.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Sales at 4¼@5 cents.

BUTTER—Is coming in freely, and with an accumulation of stock, the market is dull and prices lower—we now quote at 30@32, with a sale reported of 1,500 lbs prime roll at 30.

BEANS—Are quoted at from $2,50@3 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—Sales at $9,00@12,00 as to quality, and $15,00@16,00 for "Sackett's" Belle berries.

CHESTNUTS—Offering pretty freely, and prices are weak, ranging from $5 to $5,50 per bushel.

CARBON OIL—Is firm and tending upward, and we now quote, at 31@31½ for small lots of standard brands.

CIDER—Is selling at from $7 to $9 per bbl, according to quality and size of barrel.

DRIED FRUIT—Sales of apples at 8 to 10 cts, and Peaches 9@10 cts. for quarters, and 12@13 for halves.

EGGS—In rather better supply and the market is scarcely as strong; we now quote at 32@33.

FEATHERS—In better demand and higher, and we now quote at 85@90 to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the receipts continue liberal and the market dull, prices unchanged, $6@6,50 for good to choice western winter wheats.

GRAIN—There is considerable Wheat offering, and so far as we can learn, there are no buyers here above $1,15@1,18, for good to prime Red. Oats quiet and unchanged; sales at 46@47 on spot; and 45 to arrive, buyer furnishing sacks. Prime Ear Corn is selling at 95 by car load and $1,00 in store; we can report a sale of 175 sks new car at 75. Rye is very dull and we now quote at 90@95—the outside figure for prime Penna. and Ohio. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with 34 inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather clear and cold.

The New State from Wheeling is the only arrival we have to report.

—The Lorena is loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

—The Mary Davage went to St. Louis without barges and without freight.

—The Camelia, St. Louis to Pittsburgh, was to have left Cincinnati on Friday evening.

—The Lightwood is running in connection with the Mayflower in Upper Ouachita.

—A great many boats are reported aground at the different bars along the Lower Ohio.

—We learn that Capt. Holloway has recently purchased a fine residence in Covington, fronting on the river. The price paid was $11,000.

—Capt. J. M. Gilham, of the steamer Big Horn, has purchased the steamer Julia D., at St. Louis, and will run her in the Red river trade.

—Capt. John D. Adams, of the Memphis and Arkansas river packets has expended $105,000 in boat building, at Cincinnati, this season.

—Capt. O. Palmer has gone to the wreck of the Cora S. to look after the interests of the Cincinnati underwriters. The boat was insured for only $5,000.

—A late New Orleans paper, says: The Julia A. Rudolph arrived Saturday, having made the round trip to Shreveport and back in eight days, and the run from Shreveport to port in two days and eighteen hours.

—The steamer Linton, from Memphis to Fort Smith, Arkansas, with a full cargo of groceries, struck a snag on Monday near the cut-off in Arkansas River, and sunk. Boat and cargo a total loss. She was valued at $9,000, and owned by Captain Haywood, of Shawneetown, Ill.

—The Government improvement of the Ohio river at Buffington Island, which has been in operation some time, is almost completed. The steam dredge Monongahela, owned by the Monongahela Dredge Company, has been working at this point for the past month, and will complete the work about the 5th proximo, when it is expected a great improvement will have been made at this point. It is proposed to commence operations at once on Rowland's Race, Wheeling Islands, Lima and Merriman's. This will be of very great importance to river men and others interested in the free navigation of the Ohio.

—Competition in Red River has reduced the rates of freight to a low figure at New Orleans. About ten days ago the Lacawanna and Rob Roy, from New Orleans, discharged their cargoes at Shreveport, charging three-card rates. Asking return cargoes, and not meeting with as much success as was desired in getting freights, the Rob Roy offered to take cotton at $2,50 per bale, which bid being favorably received by shippers, the Lacawana came down to $1,00 per bale, and solicited orders for up-freight at one card rates. Since then it has been a hard contest among all the boats as to which will carry lowest. The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin, of Saturday, quotes rates at straight card to Shreveport, and card one-half to Jefferson. The Ouachita trade promises to be lively. The Vicksburg trade is already so. Bend freight is abundant and going cheap.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1 50 per bottle, or $7 50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. [illegible]

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.
Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on application.
We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

ARMOR VARNISH, to preserve Bright Iron Work and Machinery from Rust.
These products are manufactured under Dr. Tweddle's patent by Superheated Steam in Vacuo. The Lubricating Oils are almost odorless, perfectly pure, uniform, and mostly light colored, stand a high temperature unchanged, and remain limpid during extreme cold. The Railroad Oils are unequaled, and are in constant use on many of the principal Railroads. Samples can be examined and orders left at 174 WOOD STREET, Works at Sharpsburg Bridge.

Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.
It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

Whisky had ten representatives in the Allegheny lock up yesterday morning.

Completed.—It is expected that the new freight house of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, at Cleveland, will be ready for use next week.

Officer Alf. Gabby, of the Allegheny police force, while riding a velocipede Saturday morning, accidentally ran into a lamp post and sprained his ankle badly.

Cherry Alley.—Nora Welsman was charged before the Mayor, Saturday, on oath of Elizabeth Plummer, with keeping a bawdy house. A warrant was issued.

Y. M. C. A.—The annual election for Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the rooms of the Association, 23 Fifth avenue, Monday, Nov. 1, 1869.

Belligerent.—William Oit complained to Alderman Taylor, Saturday morning, that Thomas Cornelius had struck him in the face with his fist. The police are looking for Thomas.

Abandonment.—Saturday morning Mary Miller made information before Alderman Taylor, charging her husband, Thomas Miller, with abandonment. Warrant issued.

Released.—Catharine Buseman, who was some time since committed to jail in default of bail on a charge of keeping a bawdy house, was released on Saturday, having procured the required bail.

Arm Broken.—Willie Johnston, residing on Tunnel street, fell through the trestle work of the Connellsville Railroad, near the gas works, on Saturday morning, and broke his right arm between the wrist and elbow.

Watched.—Alderman Neeper Saturday issued a warrant for the arrest of Thomas Dowling, on an information for larceny as bailee, preferred by Adam Showers, who alleges he loaned him a watch which he persistently refuses to return.

Robbery.—Saturday night a carpenter shop on Robinson street, Allegheny, was broken into and several chisels and other tools, suitable for burglarizing, carried off, doubtless for the use of some night prowling thief in his nefarious operations elsewhere. No clue.

The new addition to the jail was occupied for the first time by the prisoners on Friday. It is quite an agreeable change from the old quarters. The work of remodeling is progressing vigorously and the old building begins to assume a more modernized appearance.

Mayor's Morning Court.—There were twenty-nine unfortunate victims before Mayor Brush yesterday morning, twenty-one for drunkenness and eight for disorderly conduct. Ten paid the required fines and costs, one was discharged, and the remaining eighteen were committed to jail.

Personal.—The Philadelphia Post has the following personal item:—Rev Alexander Clark, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, is in this city. Mr. Clark, who was formerly associate pastor with the late Rev. Thos. H. Stockton, at Eleventh and Wood streets, has many friends in this city.

Appealed.—A hearing was had on Saturday in the case of Kinney Koff, Salt Inspector, against Wm. Haslage, grocer, for refusing to allow him to inspect a quantity of salt, on the ground that it was imported and did not come under the act. Alderman Thomas gave judgment for the penalty, $50, against the defendant, after consultation with the City Solicitor. The defendant, however, appealed and gave bail for Court.

Grand Demonstration.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this county, will have a grand regalia parade on the 18th inst., Thanksgiving day, on which occasion the corner stone of the new Odd Fellows Hall, in Birmingham, will be laid. The officers of the Grand Lodge of the State will be present, and in addition to the lodges in this county a number of lodges from a distance are expected to participate in the ceremonies.

Home Again.—Our well known fellow citizen, Dr. George H. Keyser, after an extended professional visit to the principal cities of the east, has returned home, and will be found as usual at his office. He made many valuable and practical observations regarding medical science, having visited the principal institutions for the treatment of disease, in view of adopting in his own practice any improvements introduced. We are glad to extend him welcome.

7-40 Gold Bonds—A Rare Chance for Profitable Investment.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. W. Bailey Lang & Co., offering a limited amount of 7-40 Gold Bonds issued by the Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad Company, and for the sale of which Messrs. S. McClean & Co, No. 45 Fourth Avenue, are the agents in this city. A safer and better investment of capital could not well be made, and we doubt not that our men of means will take a considerable portion of the loan.

The Liquor Dealers.

A meeting of the Committee on Organization of the liquor dealers was held Saturday afternoon, and the following resolutions adopted:

Resolved, That each and every dealer will contribute towards defraying the expenses of sending two delegates to the Chicago Convention on the 24th of November, to represent the interests of the trade in this city.

Resolved, That a general meeting of all the liquor dealers in this vicinity be held on November 15th to elect and instruct delegates.

Samuel Gordon's Will.

The will of Samuel Gordon, Esq., deceased, who was one of the leading merchants of Allegheny city, has been admitted to probate. After making liberal provision for the widow and children, the following bequests are made to charitable and religious institutions:

To Passavants Hospital, $1,000. To the Second United Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Clark's) Allegheny, $5,000. To Rev. J. Witherspoon, in trust, $3,000, to be appropriated for the erection of a United Presbyterian Church in the Third ward, Allegheny. To the Home of the Friendless $500. A bequest of $950 is made to the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of Rev. John Rogers, D. D., deceased, who for many years was pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny. A provision is inserted in the will to the effect that if any legal difficulty should arise so as to render the bequests void the amounts are to revert to his wife, who will see that his wishes are carried into effect.

Complimentary Supper to Mark Twain.

Mr. S. T. Clements, better known as "Mark Twain," the greatest of American humorists, arrived in the city on Saturday and put up at the Monongahela House. On Saturday evening the gentlemen of the lecture committee of the Mercantile Library Association, under whose auspices he is to lecture to-night at the Academy, tendered him a banquet at McGinley's elegant dining hall, on Wood street. There were present a large number of representatives of the city press and members of the Library Association. After partaking of a splendid supper the remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation. Mr. Clements is very entertaining and sociable. He is funny in everything he says and yet his drollery is natural, not forced or affected. We hope to see the Academy crowded to-night with our appreciative people, as a rich fund of humor is in store for those who may attend.

On behalf of the press we feel it is due to return thanks to the gentlemen of the Library Association for the marked and liberal hospitality extended a brother journalist who is so eminently worthy proper regard and appreciation in intellectual circles.

Serious Accident—Horse Killed and Man Injured.

An accident of a serious nature, and which will, in all probability, be attended with more serious consequences to some individual, occurred Saturday evening on Liberty street, near the Grain Elevator. Mr. Jacob Metz, formerly a member of the police force, and a friend, whose name we did not learn, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. Fitzsimmons, livery stable keeper on Irwin street, Saturday evening, to take a drive, and about half-past six o'clock, while driving along Liberty street at the place mentioned, the horse ran into the excavation for the Canal street sewer, which crosses Liberty, from Canal to Washington street. The horse's neck was broken, killing him instantly, and Mr. Metz was thrown out of the buggy into the excavation and had three of his ribs broken by the fall. His companion escaped uninjured, but the buggy was completely demolished. It is alleged that the hands working at the excavation had quit work at six o'clock in the evening and left the excavation without placing proper barricades or guards at the street crossings to prevent the occurrence of such accidents, and if such be the case, the contractor, Mr. William Dean, will probably have a bill of damages to pay. The horse and wagon or buggy, we are informed, were valued at six hundred dollars, and the injuries sustained by Mr. Metz, would entitle him to recover a much larger sum.

The carelessness of contractors under circumstances of this kind has frequently been complained of and condemned through the daily press, but the criticisms have been unheeded, and, we presume, will be until some one is required to pay heavy damages as the result of their carelessness which doubtles would have the desired result in that particular case at least, and might serve as a warning to others.

S. F. Von Bonhorst, Esq.,

Secretary and Treasurer of the Safe Deposit Company, has sent us a neatly framed and beautiful photographic view of the substantial and ornate stone edifice, recently erected and occupied by the Company, on Fourth avenue. The picture is an artistic success, giving a correct idea only of the external design of the building. The interior economy, however, is where the genius of the architect is best displayed. The great burglar and fire-proof steel vault, with its thousands of separate receptacles, each one a special contrivance to keep safe the money and valuable papers of the person who, for a trifling annual rent, secures the exclusive use of it. Persons and firms who own valuable title papers, articles of agreement, or of co-partnership, notes, bonds, money, jewelry, &c., should inspect the interior arrangements of this public Safe Depository, and see for themselves how perfect and all sufficiently, how impervious to fire, and to all the arts of the burglar, the great vault and all its compartments have been made. Such a visit can scarcely fail to determine the visitor to avail himself at once of the advantages here provided. Here, everything is absolutely safe. At your store, counting room or dwelling, there is constant peril of fire and robbery.

The Safe Deposit Company is a new institution in Pittsburgh, made necessary by the great accumulation of wealth among the people. The present Company comprises in its officers and directors some of our citizens eminent for their wealth, integrity and prudence, thus offering a guarantee of an honest and wise management. We know of no better service we can do our readers than to persuade them to agree with us in our high assertion of the great utility of the Safe Deposit Company, and not to wait until the horse be stolen and then regret that the stable had not been locked.

Alleged Homicide.

Saturday morning Henry Canby, of Allegheny, was arrested on a warrant issued by the Mayor on an information made by Andrew Henderson, charging Canby with the murder of Alexander Best, whose body was found in the Allegheny river Friday evening, an account of which was published in the GAZETTE of Saturday. The coroner's jury, it will be remembered, returned a verdict of "accidental drowning," but since the inquest certain facts have transpired which lead the friends of the deceased to believe that he came to his death by violence at the hands of Canby, and think the body was afterwards thrown into the river to conceal the crime. It is alleged that Canby and Best were drinking together on Thursday evening, and that they quarreled at the Valley Hotel. The difficulty was settled, however, and they left the the house together to go home. When officers Strain and Cupples arrested Canby, it is alleged that he made conflicting statements relative to where and when he had last seen Best previous to his death. He will have a hearing at ten o'clock this morning, when we presume the facts will fully transpire, and we prefer to wait the result of the hearing before making further comments, or stating any more of the rumors that are in circulation relative to the matter, which if untrue would work injury to the accused.

The body of Best, which was removed to Steubenville for burial, has not yet been interred, and a post mortem examination will be held upon it to ascertain whether there is any ground for the suspicions that have been aroused relative to the matter.

A Brutal Mother.

Coroner Clawson was called upon Saturday to hold an inquest on the body of a child four month old, the son of Patrick Howley. It appeared from the testimony that the father of the child has been absent from home for some months, but continued during that time to remit money to the mother who is an intemperate creature, and instead of taking proper care of her children expended the money for whiskey.

Dr. James Kerr gave it as his opinion that the death of the child was caused from a want of proper care and attention on the part of its mother.

Mrs. Ann Regler, sworn—Have lived eight months in the second story of the house where the parents of the child reside; about eight o'clock this (Saturday) morning, the mother told me the child had died during the night; the mother has been drunk for several days; her husband has been away, and had given her money which she spent for whisky; she paid no attention to the child; the child was born on the 5th of July last.

Bartholomew Klingler, sworn—Live next door to the parents of the child; the mother does not take any care of her children; she has not been sober the past two weeks; on Friday night she was singing a drunken song, while her children were crying around her.

The following verdict was returned: That the deceased, Michael Howley came to his death on the night of the 29th of October, 1869, in East Birmingham, from want of care and wilful neglect on the part of the mother, Sarah Howley.

The Aquatic Fiasco.

Henry Coulter published a card in yesterday's Leader in which he endeavored to explain how it happened that there was no boat race between himself and Mekeil. Of course his statement of the case bears probably on his own part of the fiasco and lays most, if not all, of the blame to the charge of the Cold Harbor oarsman. He concludes his card as follows: "In this connection I will also state that the reports current for the last few days, and referred to it in the daily papers, that the race was not to be a bona fide one, were entirely unfounded. The matter of selling a race was never broached to me, and I have more pride in myself than to stoop so low as ever to make, or even listen to such a proposition. This explanation is hardly necessary to my friends, but to convince those in doubt on the subject I make this statement, which I am ready to back with my oath.

In conclusion I will state that noting in the daily papers that Mekiel's backer offered to back him (Mekiel) for a race on the Hudson, for from one thousand to twenty-five hundred dollars a side, I will row Mr. Mekeil, on the Hudson river, a five mile race, for from one to two thousand dollars a side, with the some articles of agreement upon which Walter Brown and I rowed."

New Advertising Agency.

Dr. I. G. Hubbs, of New York City, who has so long been identified with the Advertising Agency of Peaslee & Co., has established himself in the same line of business at No. 5 Beekman street. Few gentlemen in the country more thoroughly understand the science of advertising than Dr. Hubbs, and none have had larger experience and more general acquaintance with the press of the country. We commend him to our friends who may have business to transact through an advertising agency, as a fair dealing, honorable and correct gentleman, in whom they can repose the fullest amount of confidence.

The Weed Sewing Machine has not presented its claims prominently before the public for a few days, owing to the confusion resulting from a change of management. But having recovered from this temporary check, and having perfected arrangements for extending its sphere of usefulness, it begs to claim the largest share of public favor as its right, and asks the people for a substantial verdict in its behalf, to be given at 116 Market street, where the closest attention will be given to the wants of those favoring us with a call.

Amusements.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams closed a highly successful engagement at the Opera House on Saturday evening. The audiences drawn at each of the several appearances were very large and select. To-night the Leffingwell, a prince of genuine burlesque, commences a week's engagement. He will appear as Clorinda—the gushing, voluptuous Clorinda, in the extravaganza of "Cinderella." Mrs Leffingwell, Miss Belle Hewitt and Millie Sackett appear with him in the cast.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—At the "Old Drury," this week, splendid special attractions will be offered. To-night Miss Rita Percy will appear in her unapproachable classical representations of draped statuary. George R. Edeson, an actor of note, will appear in a favorite part, and Miss Ada Wray, the accomplished songstress and banjoist, will contribute her share to the bill.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—"Mark Twain," the humorous American writer, will lecture to-night under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association. The seats are not reserved, so that those who desire good places, should be promptly on hand when the doors are thrown open. It is needless to speak of Mark Twain's claims on the people, as his name in these parts as well as throughout the entire country is held to be synonomous with genuine wit and humor. We anticipate to-night one of the largest audiences ever assembled at the Academy.

ST. BRIDGET'S FAIR.—The Fair and Festival for the benefit of St. Bridget's Church, now being held in the church on Bedford avenue, is proving quite a success in part of attendance and attraction. It will be open every evening during the week.

MASONIC HALL.—Signor Blitz closed on Saturday at Masonic Hall, after a very profitable season. He is justly popular with our people, who have always a willing welcome to extend him.

A REMONSTRANCE.

From the Colored Citizens of Pittsburgh to the Central Board of Education.

GENTLEMEN:—At a large meeting of the parents and tax-payers of this city, held in Wylie street Church, on Tuesday evening, October 19th, the undersigned committee of fifteen were appointed to present to you the following remonstrance and resolutions with reference to your action in regard to the school for colored children, situated on Miller street in this city.

According to the published report of the above mentioned meeting, the Board adopted a "report," made by the Committee on Colored Schools, recommending the sale of the Miller-street school house.

We do most earnestly but respectfully remonstrate against the sale of said property for the following reasons:

We need, and are justly entitled to this graded school, and the Miller street school house is favorably situated for that purpose, and should that school be broken up, even for the purpose of forming primary schools in other parts of the city, we believe that an irreparable injury will be done to the educational interests of that class for whose benefit the school was established. We further beg leave to remind the Board, that if we have no graded school there can be no possibility of our children qualifying themselves for entrance into the High School.

But although it cannot fail to be apparent that such an injurious effect as we have stated would certainly follow the consummation of your proposed action, yet we wish it to be distinctly understood that we do not believe that such is the intention of the Central Board of Education of the Christian and Republican city of Pittsburgh. We would further state that it would be but common justice, not to say humanity, if the Board should open other schools for colored children, so that they will not be compelled to travel from Lawrenceville to the Point, passing a half dozen ward schools on their way to Miller street.

We also beg leave to state that we believe that when the strong prejudices of a Christian people lead them to act in a manner that is at variance with the Golden Rule, and repugnant to the spirit of our free institutions, that it is but reasonable to expect that they will be liberal toward those who are doomed to suffer by their acts. We also learn from your report at the last meeting, that by your authority a white lady has been appointed one of the teachers in the school for colored children on Miller street. Against this appointment we do most decidedly protest, and pray that the Board will reconsider their action and appoint a colored teacher. In making this request, we are not actuated by that spirit of caste which has for so long a time proscribed and maligned us, but we are urged by a sense of justice and right and self respect, and with a desire to encourage our educated men and women.

To be taxed for the support of our public schools, and then to be colonized by the arrangements of our public school laws or customs is indeed a great wrong which we have patiently suffered, but when, in addition to this, we are expected to submit to this appointment, when there are colored ladies who are qualified for the position, is more than human nature can bear in silence. Until the spirit of our modern civilization shall do away with all distinction based on color or race in our public schools, we will demand colored teachers for schools composed exclusively of our children. This is the unanimous opinion of the undersigned committee, and that of the large meeting of respectable citizens of Pittsburgh who appointed them. We earnestly petition the Central Board of Education to make such a change in the appointment of the Chairman of the Committee on Colored Schools as shall place a gentleman in that position who will be in sympathy with those whose educational interests his committee controls, and who will not wound and insult our feelings by the language he may use when he may find occasion to refer to us. And

WHEREAS, We acknowledge with profound gratitude the blessings of education as the chief source of real happiness, and as essential to the intellectual and moral growth of all men, we, as parents and guardians, feeling sensibly impressed with the duty which we owe to ourselves, to our children and our posterity, and believing that a well-regulated and impartial system of instruction exercises a reformatory influence in all the affairs of life, and in the individual as well as the national life; therefore,

Resolved, That the education of every American subject helps to dignify the American name.

Resolved, That we disavow the statements made in our city papers, given by the chairman from the Committee on Colored Schools, as being the expressed sentiments and wishes of the people.

Resolved, That while we will gladly embrace all privileges for the educational interests of our youth, we deem it to be preeminently necessary that we choose teachers from among ourselves, and thus incite each other to the acquisition of knowledge.

Resolved, That a faithful scrutiny of our past history warrants no better plan for our social and political amelioration than in the practice of those principles and habits of virtue which are the result of mental and moral culture.

Resolved, That by virtue of taxation, of loyalty and liberty, the wisdom of the people and the laws of the land forbid that our school be treated as a charitable object, but as an institution of learning, upon whose well doing depends the well being of all. Respectfully submitted.

A ROMAN correspondent of the Cross Gazette writes: "What confusion reigns in the various circles of the Catholic Church may be seen from the fact, that though the Bishop of Orleans has summoned Father Hyacinthe to return to the Church, and throw himself at the feet of the Pope, one of his own works has been placed on the list of prohibited books. Ill natured people remark that the Bishop may accompany the monk to Rome, and there do penance for his heretical writings. The learned prelate had undertaken the difficult task of proving the Syllabus to be in harmony with modern liberalism. Neither the Church nor the world was convinced. Monsignore Nardi in particular has long urged the Pope to pronounce his anathema on this illegitimate offspring of an unsanctified connection between religion and science. In the chambers of the Vatican, Monsignore Dupanloup and Count Montalembert are considered far more dangerous heretics than Father Hyacinthe."

AN attempt was made to assassinate Sheriff Fisher, of Chicago, in his office, on Thursday evening of last week. Three shots were fired at him, one taking effect in the fleshy part of the leg. The assailant was unknown, and the Sheriff was reticent about the affair, not appearing desirous to communicate any information.
